All lectures and educational activities for all programmes (Bachelor's, Master's, PhDs) are delivered mainly in person, compatibly with the available seats for each classroom. The same activities will be also available online.

Access to the classroom reservation systems will be guaranteed by enabling every other week, from Tuesday to Thursday, students with final digits from 00 to 49 or from 50 to 99 and all students from Friday to Saturday (see the instructions and calendar in the "In-person lectures and classroom reservation section");

To book your seat:

Log in to Prodigit using your Infostud credentials: ID number and password. The online seat reservation system will provide you with a receipt for your reservations. You must keep the receipt printed or saved on your mobile phone and show it to the security staff at the entrance of the Sapienza branches and whenever you will be asked to.

Please Note:

If you decide not to attend the booked lecture, please cancel your reservation to give access to a student on the waiting list;

If you failed to make your reservation, we will put your name on the waiting list and notify if a seat becomes available. If not, you can take the lesson remotely; You can only cancel from Wednesday to Saturday of the previous week.

Tracking system:

To confirm your presence in the classroom, your professor will provide you with a token.
