1. Stages of the procedure

To be admitted to the programme, you must:

- a. Pay the fee of €10.00 in accordance with the procedures and deadlines set out in point 3.
- b. Wait for the outcome of the eligibility check. If you do not meet the entry requirements, you may acquire the missing credits by passing single examinations.
The procedures and costs are set out in the section 'Single Examinations' of the Regulations for Attendance at Bachelor's and Master's Degree Programmes and for Student Fees
Go to the regulations
- c. Carry out the personal skills assessment in accordance with the procedures set out in point 4.
- d. Proceed with enrolment by paying the course enrolment fees in accordance with the procedures and deadlines set out in point 5.
Enrolment can only take place once the Student Affairs Office has sent an email confirming the successful outcome of the eligibility and personal knowledge checks.

For students coming from other Italian universities

Students coming from other Italian universities must, after paying €10.00, submit a self-declaration stating the exams they have taken, the scientific-disciplinary sectors corresponding to the courses, and the relevant syllabuses, using the form "Dichiarazione laurea ed esami per verifica dei requisiti" available on the University website, on the student forms page
<https://www.uniroma1.it/en/pagina/student-forms>

The submission can be made from the personal email address provided on Infostud at the time of registration, or from a certified email (PEC) address.

- If you are using your personal email account, the address to enter as the recipient is that of your Student Affairs Office or the address specified in the course requirements, available in the Degree Programmes catalogue on the page for each course, under the 'Enrolment' section. Before submitting your application, you must check that you have uploaded your identity document to Infostud, under 'Profile > Personal documents';
- If you are using a PEC email address, the address to enter as the recipient is protocollosapienza@cert.uniroma1.it

For students who have not yet obtained their degree

Where the course regulations so provide, students who have not yet obtained their degree (at Sapienza or at other universities) may also apply for verification of their eligibility, subject to the requirement to obtain it by 23 January 2027 (for students who have not yet obtained their degree at Sapienza) and by 19 December 2026 (for students who have not yet obtained their degree from other Italian or international universities).

For students from abroad and/or holding a qualification obtained within a foreign education system

The procedures for students from abroad are set out in point 6.

2. Admission requirements

Admission to the Master's Degree programme in Science and Technology for the Conservation of Cultural Heritage requires a three-year degree or university diploma, or an equivalent qualification obtained abroad that is deemed suitable. A basic knowledge of mathematics, physics and the natural sciences is required, as well as knowledge of the materials constituting and/or used in cultural heritage, and of the humanities and economics (museology, history of restoration and techniques of artistic production, legislation and economics relating to cultural heritage and cultural activities).

Admission will be based on an assessment of academic qualifications and an interview, which is compulsory for all applicants. The interview will be conducted either in person or remotely, and detailed information on this will be provided.

To be eligible for the Master's degree programme, graduates must have acquired:

- 54 CFU in core modules (MAT, CHIM, FIS, GEO, BIO, INF, ING-IND)
- 6 CFU in subject-specific courses (L-ANT, L-ART, M-STO, ICAR, IUS, SECS)

The Master's degree programme in Science and Technology for the Conservation of Cultural Heritage is taught in Italian and English. Admission to the programme also requires an assessment of English language knowledge and skills at B2 level, should applicants not hold a recognised language certificate.

Those who have not acquired all the credits listed above during their previous studies may also enrol on the Master's degree programme.

For those who do not meet the above criteria, an individual assessment will be carried out to evaluate their prior knowledge and skills. In the event of gaps in one of the subject areas listed above, students will be required to supplement their knowledge with specific courses or by passing individual exams before enrolling on the Master's degree programme.

3. Verification of eligibility

Eligibility checks must be requested by paying a €10.00 fee from 2 July 2026 and by one of the following dates, as chosen:

- 15 September 2026 (the only applicable date for applicants from non-EU countries requiring a student visa)
- 15 October 2026

- 17 November 2026
- 17 December 2026
- 14 January 2027 (date reserved for students who have already graduated from Sapienza or are about to graduate).

The payment is generated via the Infostud system.

The payment is made online via PagoPA (direct payment).

The code to be entered into the system is 33601.

6. For students who hold a qualification from a foreign education system

The procedures vary depending on citizenship and country of residence.

For citizens of non-EU countries who reside abroad and are applying for a student visa, and for students from China participating in the Marco Polo programme who have chosen the English-language programme

In these cases, you must hold a mandatory letter of pre-acceptance.

The procedures to follow are set out in point 7 on the International Students' Office page

Read point 7

For citizens of non-EU countries who reside abroad and are applying for a student visa, and for students from China participating in the Marco Polo project who have chosen the Italian-language programme

In this case, a letter of pre-acceptance is not required, but you must pass the Italian language proficiency test (level B2), or submit a certificate of proficiency in Italian at a level no lower than B2, as indicated in point 1 on the International Students' Office page. This requirement applies only to those applying for enrolment on a degree programme taught in Italian
