

Individual and groups

Formal group is formed on the basis of specific norms

True

False

Delegate group is a collection of individuals who working together because they have not choice

True

False

What are the characteristic of a group?

Group Dynamics

Definition of POSITION METHODS is: many groups make decision without dwelling on the effects they will have on members.

True

False

Phases to develop a group are: forming phase, norming phase, storming phase, performing phase.

True

False

Description of aspects of a group discipline:

Team work

Team work leads to personal recognition, raises self – esteem and increases motivation and commitment.

True

False

The values of team members are: honesty, discipline, creativity, leadership.

True

False

What are the consequences of the older patients increase?